

Principles of Management

24HS

Programme	BSc in Business Information Technology
Degree	Bachelor
ECTS	5
Module type	mandatory module
Module coordinator	Brido Schuler
Compulsory attendance	Attendance is expected.
Leading principle / Short description	This course provides students the basic theories that help to understand the management of an organization. The fundamental concepts and principles of managing organized activities are covered. The course explores the general history and theories of the management field and then analyze actual principles around the topics 'management, organization and decision making'. At the end of the module, students are able to apply models, frameworks and tools for analysis of business problems and can offer practical recommendations to management.
Module content	Part one: Managers and managing, the evolution of management thought, managing the global environment. •Part two: Decision making and learning, the manager as planner and strategist, value chain management. •Part three: Managing organizational structure and culture, organizational control and change. •Part four: managing diversity, ethics and social responsibility
Competencies to be achieved	Knowledge and Understanding: Students ... ◦ identify and describe the general objectives of business and the context in which it operates (Obj. 1.1) ◦ explain business management and describe the functions and tasks of management (Obj. 1.1) ◦ describe and explain the impact of an international business environment on an organization and the managerial decision making process and explain the impact on company's' strategy (Obj. 1.1; Obj. 4.2) Applying Knowledge and Understanding: Students ... ◦ apply frameworks and models in order to analyze business and management problems in a national and international context and explain the impact on company's' strategy (Obj. 1.1; Obj. 4.2) Making Judgements: Students ... ◦ compare and contrast the elements of organizational structure and of corporate culture (Obj. 2.2) use their critical mind to evaluate various aspects of the theories / models / principles (Obj. 2.2) ◦ analyze advantages and disadvantages of the use of various models in different situations (Obj. 2.2) ◦ use the theories to solve case studies / answer questions (Obj. 2.1) Communications Skills: Students ... ◦ demonstrate the ability to think critically, to organize thoughts logically and to communicate persuasively elements of principles of management to a target audience (Obj. 3.1; Obj. 3.2) Learning Skills: Students ... ◦ work independently with learning materials (book, case study, other materials) (Obj. 1.1)
Prerequisites	None
Teaching and learning methods	Contact Hours: Lecture, Interactive instruction, Discussion, Presentation, Group work, Case study, Review of literature Guided Self-Study: Individual work, Working with a partner, Group work
Literature	Required Reading: Kinicki, A.; Breaux Soignet, D.; Hartnell, C. (2024): Management - A practical introduction, McGraw Hill. Additional reading material available on moodle platform.
Remarks	Links to other modules: The module 'Principles of management' serves as a foundation for the business information technology students

Grading Assessment

Grade 1-6 (half grades)

Exam 100%

Oral / Written	Written
Duration (min)	90
Timeframe	End of semester
Grading Scale	1 to 6
Remarks	Max. 9 points or 10% of the exam can be achieved during the semester.

Module detailsPrinciples of Management (BITPT 1b) - Mon - Basel

Time	5:15 PM - 9:00 PM
Language	Englisch
Periodicity	Weekly
Lecturers	Brido Schuler
Number	2-24HS.W-B-BITPT-010201S1.SN/PT24

Principles of Management (BITPT24) - Thu - Windisch

Time	8:15 AM - 12:00 PM
Language	Englisch
Periodicity	Weekly
Lecturers	Dr. Marc Aeschbacher
Number	1-24HS.W-B-BIT-010201S1.SN/PT24

Principles of Management (BITFT 1a) - Mon - Basel

Time	1:15 PM - 5:00 PM
Language	Englisch
Periodicity	Weekly
Lecturers	Brido Schuler
Number	2-24HS.W-B-BITFT-010201S1.SN/FT24

